

INDIANA CLASSICAL CONFERENCE ANNUAL MEETING 2017

"IS TRANSLATION EVER
'POSSIBLE', OR, ARE THE
ITALIANS RIGHT – TRADUTTORE-TRADITORE
(TRANSLATOR-TRAITOR)? "

Judith de Luce
Miami University

FRIDAY
March 17th, 8pm
PHARMACY 103

BREAKFAST – 8:30-9:00

SESSION 1 (PEDAGOGY) – 9:00-9:50

Martha Payne - IUPUI

Using Reacting to the Past in the Myth Classroom

Roundtable Discussion – Christopher Bungard – Butler University

Making Classics Relevant

BREAK – 9:50-10:00

SESSION 2 (CLASSICAL RECEPTION) – 10:00-10:50

Jennifer Poorman – Butler University

Panem et Circenses: A Comparison in Political Discourse

David DeVore – Ball State University

"Other Historians Would Pass Down Victories.":

Eusebius' History of the Church and the Classical Tradition

BREAK – 10:50-11:00

SESSION 3 (GREEK APPROPRIATION) – 11:00- 12:00

Lynne Kvapil – Butler University

Archaeology Saves the Day!: The TAPHOS Project and the Preservation of Ancient Aidonia

Charles Campbell – Miami University

Euphony in Translation?: The Sound and Sense of Greek Poetry in Catullus

LUNCH – 12-1:30

The Business Meeting for the ICC will take place during the lunch. All are welcome to participate.

SATURDAY
March 18th
PHARMACY 106A

BUTLER
UNIVERSITY